Congratulations Nordic Gender Equality Fund 10 years!

In June, the Nordic Gender Equality Fund turns ten years old! A decade of exciting, urgent and challenging projects, all aimed at increasing gender equality in the Nordic countries. In connection with the anniversary, NIKK is publishing results from the first ten years. A total of 79 projects have resulted in, among other things:

- Enhanced cooperation on sexual harassment between Nordic and Baltic children's rights organisations
- A new Nordic platform focusing on men and masculinity norms
- Nordic co-operation against online violence
- 32 publications, 41 seminars and 24 networks

In short reports and interviews, project participants share experiences, knowledge and insights from their projects. They reflect on the benefits of Nordic co-operation and how we can meet the challenges identified in the Nordic co-operation programme for gender equality. The publication is available in English, Finnish, Icelandic and Swedish.

Third call for the Nordic LGBTI fund

This autumn, the Nordic LGBTI Fund opens up for applications for funding for the third time. The purpose is to promote Nordic co-operation within the field and to improve conditions for LGBTI people in the region. The call is open between 1 September and 3 October.

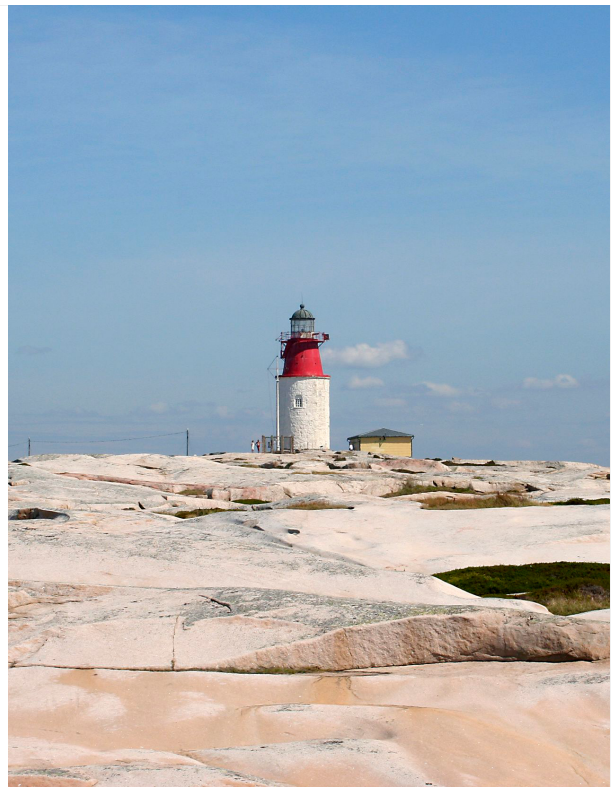

Projects that contribute to Nordic interests and work for equal rights and opportunities for LGBTI people in the Nordic countries can apply for financing from the Fund. The Fund finances projects where at least three organisations, from at least three Nordic countries, collaborate. The call is open to various activities and organisations, such as voluntary organisations, authorities and companies.

Nordic Conference on Sexual Harassment at Work

NIKK is organising the Nordic conference Prevent and Intervene – Ending Sexual Harassment at Work at Litteraturhuset in Oslo on 30 October 2023. The conference will follow up on the results of the five projects funded by the Nordic Research Funding Initiative on Sexual Harassment at Work 2021-2023. The projects will present their results and together with industry, labour market representatives, policy makers and researchers discussions will be held on preventive measures, current research and new findings in the Nordic region.

Where: Oslo, Litteraturhuset Time:
11:30 - 16:00
